Exam Reengineering Project Enters Third and Final Phase

The Exam Reengineering Project recently entered its third and final phase, Implementation. The purpose of the Project is to increase customer satisfaction, promote voluntary compliance, and strengthen division effectiveness. During Phase III, the Project Teams will preview specific components of the redesigned audit process and solicit stakeholder feedback. A series of outreach events will take place around the country starting in mid-February through the end of March. As these events are scheduled, the dates will be announced to external stakeholders via your local TEC office. In the meantime, comments about the redesigned audit process may be sent to examreengineering@irs.gov

In addition, key Project information packages have been prepared for you and are attached: Drop-in Articles, Frequently Asked Questions and Answers, and Talking Points.
